Think About These Things

St. Paul ends his letter today in this way: “Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things...” (Phil 4:8). This is not only sound spiritual wisdom; it is profound practical wisdom.

In putting these words into Sacred Scripture, God emphasizes an important facet of reality that many of us have not tuned into: We get more of what we want when we see more of what we want. This is what I mean: When we speak and think positively, not as if everything will go well regardless of external circumstances, but more so as if everything is positive for us, then reality adjusts to meet it.

I’ve had lots of experience thinking and seeing in the negative. I’ve been very focused on sin, as many communities are. It’s not a bad thing to be aware of sin and to want to improve. But when we spend all our time thinking about it and how to avoid it, we see it everywhere. We can’t help but see ourselves as terrible, wicked creatures who will always be damaged in some way.

Some of the saints struggled with this vision of themselves. They saw themselves as terrible and wretched, and only terrible and wretched. During this period of their lives, they did not recognize the power of the goodness and the grace of God. God created each and every one of us good, as He says in Genesis, and He gives us grace beyond what we need and beyond what we ask for. He does not see us as beyond redemption or beyond favor.

When we shift our focus from sin to virtue, as many of these same saints did, we begin to see virtue everywhere, rather than sin. When, as Paul says, we “think about these things,” we see these things. We see the true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent, and praiseworthy in ourselves, the world, and others, and we seek to amplify it wherever possible.

So rather than seeking to eliminate sin, we seek to amplify goodness. This gives us greater compassion for ourselves and for those we meet, enabling us to truly love as Christ loves, rather than to judge as we see fit. Do we sin? Sure. Do others sin? Sure. Does it do anyone any good to dwell on how bad and damaged we are? No.

We can begin to be perfect when we shift our sights toward perfection, when we have something to move toward in the first place. If we aim to move away, we will simply see and receive more of what we aim to move away from, as it will be the center of our focus and perception. Let us move toward the good, thinking about these things.

By David Dashiell

When we shift our focus from sin to virtue, we begin to see virtue everywhere.

Know

To know is learning to trust God.

The more you study the faith and encounter God in prayer, the more you learn to trust God. Make time in your day to nurture your relationship with God and consider spending time with others reading the scriptures and growing in faith.

Columbus Day Mass Times

Monday, October 12.

Parish offices will be closed on Monday, October 12. We will celebrate our regular schedule of Masses at 6:45 AM, 8:10 AM, and 12:10 PM.

Commemoration of All Souls Requiem Mass

Monday, November 2, 7:00 PM.

Through the timeless beauty of Gregorian chant and Tomás Luis de Victoria's rich setting of the Mass for the Dead, the faithful are invited to remember and pray for all who have gone before us in faith, commending them to God's mercy and the promise of the Resurrection. Prayer intention cards for the beloved dead will be available.

Red Mass for the Legal Community

Wednesday, October 28, 11:00 AM - 1:30 PM, at Sacred Heart.

The St. Thomas More Society hosts the annual Mass and awards luncheon for lawyers, judges, and other members of the legal community. Mass will start at 11:00 am and feature a judicial procession and a special dedication to spiritual inspiration for lawyers and Judges. The Awards Luncheon will follow at the Downtown Capital City Club. Learn more at <https://www.stm-atlanta.org>.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE Catholic Today?

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5-TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6
AFTER 12:10 PM MASS AND 7:00 PM.

Fr. Thomas McCarthy, an Augustinian priest and friend of His Holiness Pope Leo XIV, presents a two-day mission exploring how to be Catholic in today's world. He'll talk about the saints and how we can become one, how God listens to us in prayer, and how to build up our parish family.

Two sessions each day

Pick a session to attend each day! We'll hold the same talk each day after the 12:10 PM Mass and at 7:00 PM. Monday's evening session includes Confessions; Tuesday's evening session includes Mass. A meal will not be served at these talks.

Love

To love is learning to follow Christ with others.

In the heart of our ministry is our calling from Jesus to love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength in addition to loving our neighbors as ourselves. We believe the best way to follow Jesus with others is through forming community and sharing our faith.

Work with our Youngest Students

Christ the King Preschool-Ponce is seeking people with a passion for working with our youngest students. We're seeking substitute teachers, a Monday/Friday floating teacher, and a music teacher. To inquire, email Joleen Neel, Preschool Director, at jneel@ctking.com.

Spiritually Adopt a Priest

Offer prayers for his vocation, ministry, and holiness as he strives to follow the example of Jesus. We would like all our priests in the Archdiocese of Atlanta to have a spiritual parent praying for them. If you are interested, please contact Marta Duran at martarduran@gmail.com or 404-210-7216.

Join Connect CTK after the In Our Time Panel

Sunday, October 18, at Howell's Kitchen and Bar.

ConnectCTK is a Catholic adult ministry where meaningful friendships begin, faith grows deeper, and every season of life is welcomed. We're attending the "In Our Time" panel at Ahavath Achim synagogue together (see below), then having dinner at Howell's. Learn more and RSVP at <https://cathedralctk.com/connectctk>.

IN OUR TIME

THE PROMISE OF CHRISTIAN-JEWISH FRIENDSHIP

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18

4:00-6:00 PM

AHAVATH ACHIM SYNAGOGUE

At a moment when antisemitism is rising at alarming levels and divisions between communities too often deepen misunderstanding and fear, this conversation seeks to offer something different: an opportunity for honest dialogue, shared learning, and relationship-building rooted in mutual respect and moral courage.

Serve

To serve is learning to live beyond ourselves.

Learn to be a Lector

Monday, October 26, 6:00-7:30 PM, in the Cathedral.

Lectors assist priests at Mass by reading aloud the words of Holy Scripture. Sign up for this training, and join the team of lectors who occasionally read at your regular Mass. Sign up at <https://cathedralctk.com/lectors>. With questions, email Ed at esullivan@ctking.com.

Become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

Tuesday, October 27, 6:00-7:30 PM, in Conference Room 1

Extraordinary Ministers help distribute Holy Communion reverently at Mass. Sign up for this training and join the team of ministers at your regular Mass. Sign up at <https://cathedralctk.com/emhc>. With questions, email Ed at esullivan@ctking.com.

Sponsor an OCIA Candidate

We're preparing a new cohort of people discerning entering the Catholic Church, and we're looking for people to walk with them. You don't have to be a theologian - we're looking for confirmed Catholics in good standing, who can be available for the Rites and who are willing to share their faith. With questions, email Allyson Griner at agriner@ctking.com.

Service begins with a heart of generosity, not just with money and time, but with our love, appreciation, praise, virtue, and encouragement. A beautiful way to thank God is by using our gifts to be His hands and feet, continuing His healing, feeding, teaching, and serving.

Join the Cathedral Voices Choir

Interested in joining a choir, but not sure where to start? Cathedral Voices is the newest adult choir at Christ the King. Open to singers of all ability levels, we sing the 5:30 PM Mass once each month and special liturgies like Christmas Eve. We are currently holding auditions for tenors and basses. If you have questions or would like to schedule an audition, please reach out to us at ccole@ctking.com.

Try Kindness for 30 Days

What might happen if kindness went viral? One small act of kindness, each day for 30 days, can change the world. And change us all in the process. The KIND30 Movement wants as many people as possible to share a small act of kindness for 30 days in October. It takes 30 days to build a habit, and who wouldn't want to become habitually KIND? Visit <https://www.kind30.org> to learn more.

Pregnancy Aid Clinic Gala

Sunday, October 11, 5:00–9:00 PM at the Georgia Aquarium.

Join us for an unforgettable night at An Evening for Life 2026. This inspiring event will bring together friends and supporters who share a commitment to providing compassionate, life-affirming care to women and families facing unexpected pregnancies. Guests will enjoy a seated dinner, exciting live and silent auctions, raffle prizes, and powerful stories highlighting the lives transformed through the ministry of Pregnancy Aid Clinic. Buy tickets at <https://pregnancyaidclinic.com>.

Exposition, Rosary, and Marian Consecration

Thursday, October 15, at St. Michael's, Woodstock. The Marian Movement of Priests (MMP) invites you to this Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, and Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Fr. Luca Pescatori, Spiritual Counsel for MMP, and Fr. Antonio Carvalho, National Director of MMP, will attend as special guests. Learn more at <https://stmichaelcc.org>.

What God Has Joined Retreat

October 28-30 at the Archdiocesan Chancery.

Join us for the third annual "What God Has Joined" retreat. The retreat brings together separated and divorced Catholics from all over the United States and is an opportunity to grow closer to Christ, connect with other retreatants, and learn more about what it means to be in a covenant relationship, even after separation or divorce. Mass, confession, adoration, meals, and fellowship are key offerings of the retreat. Learn more at <https://catholicsformarriagerestoration.com/retreat-2026>.

PATH's Next Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

November 6–8, 2026.

Register now for PATH's next Rachel's Vineyard

Retreat. It takes courage to reach out for help, especially regarding an abortion or multiple abortions. You are not alone. Start where you are—you're so worth it. Help Caregivers for Those with Dementia

Tuesday-Thursdays at Second-Ponce Baptist.

Looking for a fun, flexible and fulfilling volunteer job? Respite Care Atlanta (RCA) is a program designed to provide joy filled care for those suffering from dementia and "respite" for their caregivers. RCA serves "members" of Club RCA on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. Volunteers serve in several roles (greeter, lunch server, exercise leader, help with arts and crafts, or a companion for the duration). Hours and shifts vary, and the best is its flexibility. It is truly a joyful place. Please contact Executive Director, Jenna Smith at 404-591-4364 for additional information.

HOLY FATHER'S OCTOBER PRAYER INTENTION

Así es como un padre bendice a sus hijos

Una antigua tradición cristiana que puedes repetir cada día. Los padres tienen la importante tarea de guiar a sus hijos hasta Dios. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica explica cómo “por la gracia del sacramento del matrimonio, los padres han recibido la responsabilidad y el privilegio de evangelizar a sus hijos. Desde su primera edad, deberán iniciarlos en los misterios de la fe, de los que ellos son para sus hijos los ‘primeros [...] heraldos de la fe’” (CIC 2225).

Sin duda, no es una tarea fácil y, en ocasiones hasta puede parecer infructuosa. A veces no conoceremos el efecto que tuvimos sobre nuestros hijos hasta muchos años más tarde.

Una parte importante de “evangelizar” a nuestros hijos es bastante simple y muy antigua. Se llama “Bendición paterna” y consiste en la capacidad de invocar la bendición de Dios sobre nuestros hijos. Como padres, tenemos una responsabilidad especial y el deber de confiar nuestros hijos a Dios, de modo que nuestras oraciones tienen un doble efecto sobre ellos. Dios nos los ha dado y es nuestro deber devolverlos a Dios.

Encontramos ejemplos de este tipo de bendición por todo el Antiguo Testamento. Uno de los ejemplos más conocidos es la bendición de Isaac sobre su hijo Jacob (cf. Génesis 27). Hay muchos otros ejemplos en el Antiguo Testamento y por esta razón muchas personas usan estas bendiciones para sus propios hijos.

Una bendición que se usa con frecuencia viene del libro de Números y se la conoce como Bendición aarónica: “Que el Señor te bendiga y te proteja. Que el Señor haga brillar su rostro sobre ti y muestre su gracia. Que el Señor te descubra su rostro y te conceda la paz” (Números 6,24-26).

Encontramos otra bendición en el libro de Tobías, donde Tobit ofrece a su hijo Tobías una bendición antes de que parta en su viaje: “El Dios que está en el cielo los proteja y los haga volver a mi lado sanos y salvos. ¡Que su ángel los acompañe con su protección, hijo mío!” (Tobías 5,17).

Una manera sencilla de realizar esta bendición es tomar un poco de agua bendita (si hay disponible) y marcar la señal de la cruz en la frente de tu hijo (o simplemente colocar tu mano en su cabeza). Al mismo tiempo, puedes rezar cualquiera de las oraciones anteriores o decir sencillamente: “Que Dios te bendiga en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo”.

La fórmula de la oración no está escrita en piedra, así que un padre o una madre pueden utilizar una oración espontánea para bendecir a sus hijos. La parte importante es invocar la bendición de Dios sobre ellos, reconocer el poder que Dios nos ha concedido como padres.

Esta bendición se pronuncia normalmente antes de acostarse, pero también puede usarse antes de que los niños vayan a la escuela, se suban al autobús o se vayan de viaje. Te confortará saber que Dios está con ellos cuando salen de casa y que un ángel les acompaña a cada paso del camino.

No es fácil ser padres; educarles en la fe puede parecer una tarea insuperable. Sin embargo, con la ayuda de Dios, todo es posible.

Bautismos

Nuestro próximo bautizo comunitario será el sábado 10 de octubre a las 9:30 am en la Catedral. Nuestras próximas fechas de clase de bautismo son 31 de octubre y 28 de noviembre. Todas las clases de bautismo se llevan a cabo a las 5:00 pm. en la sala de conferencias 1 y 2. Para las clases Pre Bautismales favor no traer niños. Para registrarse y ver los requisitos, visite la sección de sacramentos del sitio web de la Catedral en español.

¿POR QUÉ SE DEBE REGISTRAR EN LA CATEDRAL?

Registrarse es la única forma de unirse a la comunidad de la Catedral. Muchas personas piensan que solamente con asistir a la misa, ya hacen parte de la Catedral. Inscribirse en la Catedral requiere un compromiso formal de llenar una aplicación, participar en las actividades religiosas, sociales y ministeriales que tiene la Catedral.

El registrarse también le da beneficios como solicitar sacramentos, pedir certificados para ser padrinos, cartas para inmigración, participar en la formación de fé y recibir el reporte de sus donaciones para sus impuestos al final del año.

Pertenecer a la Catedral es un compromiso. La Catedral nos da las misas, sacramentos, formación en la fé, y la Catedral necesita contar con su ayuda para lograr su misión; siendo un miembro activo.

¿Como saber si usted está inscrito? Una forma de saberlo es si está recibiendo comunicaciones regularmente por email, o si recibe los sobres de donación. Si usted no recibe nada de lo anterior, significa que usted no está oficialmente registrado o ha sido inactivado por el sistema. Si usted no está seguro, puede llamar a la Oficina Hispana.

Estar registrado en la catedral de Cristo Rey representa fé y el apoyo a la vida y trabajo realizado por la parroquia. Como una comunidad de fe, estamos para ayudarnos en el camino del discipulado. Los formatos de registro se encuentran en la Oficina Hispana, y en nuestra página de internet en www.cathedralctk.com.

Intención de Misa

Si necesita mandar a decir una misa por la intención de un enfermo, difunto, etc. Es necesario venir a la recepción de la Catedral y ordenarla. La fecha dependerá de la disponibilidad. Tenga en cuenta que debe ser miembro activo de la catedral.

La intención de oración del Papa para el octubre

Por la pastoral de la salud mental. Recemos para que la pastoral de la salud mental se integre en toda la Iglesia, ayudando a superar el estigma y la discriminación hacia las personas con enfermedades mentales.
